Freedom of Information: Right to know request

Dear Mr Witton,

Thank you for your request for information about the licensees of Ofcom's amateur radio call book data. Your request was received on 14 January 2015.

You asked for the following information:

This is a freedom of information request. Please send me the list of licencees of the Amateur Radio Call book data under Re-use of Public Sector Information Regulations 2000. To be clear - I want a list of the licensees of the call book data not a list of amateur radio licencees nor the call book data itself.

I am writing to advise that Ofcom has completed its search.

Anyone is able to apply for a licence to have the call-book data using the application form attached to this letter, as long as the information is used for the purposes described. However, our records show only one request for a copy of the application form has ever been received and there are no records to show that an application was completed. As a result Ofcom has no information to supply you as it is not aware of anyone who has such a licence

If you have any further requests do please get in touch. Please quote the reference number above in any future correspondence about this request, as this will help us to deal with your query more quickly.

Yours sincerely,

Information Requests
